Pig Cookies And Other Stories:

Pig Cookies and Other Stories Alberto Ríos, 1995 A collection of fantasy tales set in Mexico In Waltz of the Fat Man a butcher goes to a forest to waltz with an imaginary fairy while The Great Gardens of Lamberto Diaz is on a garden imagined by villagers living on barren land By the author of The Iguana Killer A Girl and Her Pig April Bloomfield, 2012-11-01 A Girl and Her Pig takes us behind the scenes of April Bloomfield's lauded restaurants and into her own home kitchen where her attention to detail and her reverence for sourcing the finest ingredients possible results in unforgettable food Her innovative yet refreshingly unfussy recipes hark back to a strong English tradition enlivened by a Mediterranean influence and an unfailingly modern and fresh sensibility From baked eggs with anchovies and cream to smoked haddock chowder from beetroot and smoked trout salad to a classic duck confit April's recipes are wonderfully fresh and unfussy Written with real verve this is a cookbook full of personality and chock full of tales and tips from one of the world's best loved chefs

Border Fictions Claudia Sadowski-Smith, 2008 Border Fictions offers the first comparative analysis of multiethnic and transnational cultural representations about the United States borders with Mexico and Canada Blending textual analysis with theories of globalization and empire Claudia Sadowski Smith forges a new model of inter American studies Border Fictions places into dialogue a variety of hemispheric perspectives from Chicana o Asian American American Indian Latin American and Canadian studies Each chapter examines fiction that ranges widely from celebrated authors such as Carlos Fuentes Leslie Marmon Silko and Alberto Ríos to writers whose contributions to border literature have not yet been fully appreciated including Karen Tei Yamashita Thomas King Janette Turner Hospital and emerging Chicana o writers of the U S Mexico border Proposing a diverse and geographically expansive view of border and inter American studies Border Fictions links the work of these and numerous other authors to civil rights movements environmental justice activism struggles for land and border crossing rights as well as to anti imperialist forms of nationalism in the United States neighboring countries The book forces us to take into account the ways in which shifts in the nature of global relations affect literary production especially in its hemispheric manifestations

Plantation Child and Other Stories Eve Begley Kiehm, 1995-03-01 These vividly told tales of plantation life from decades past center around the lives of Marita Kim and her four younger brothers and sisters The children experience many hardships growing up motherless and poor in a Korean camp in Hawaii but their stories are full of fun and adventure

Voices in the Kitchen Meredith E. Abarca, 2006 Literally chilaquiles are a breakfast I grew up eating fried corn tortillas with tomato chile sauce Symbolically they are the culinary metaphor for how working class women speak with the seasoning of their food from the Introduction Through the ages and across cultures women have carved out a domain in which their cooking allowed them to express themselves strengthen family relationships and create a world of shared meanings with other women In Voices in the Kitchen Meredith E Abarca features the voices of her mother and several other family members and friends seated at their kitchen tables to share the grassroots world view of these working class Mexican and Mexican American women In the kitchen Abarca demonstrates women assert their own saz n seasoning not only in their cooking but also in their lives Through a series of oral histories or charlas culinarias culinary chats the women interviewed address issues of space sensual knowledge artistic and narrative expression and cultural and social change From her mother s breakfast chilaquiles to the most elaborate traditional dinner these women share their lives as they share their savory symbolic and theoretical meanings of food The charlas culinarias represent spoken personal narratives testimonial autobiography and a form of culinary memoir one created by the cooks as writers who speak from their kitchen space Abarca then looks at writers as cooks to add an additional dimension to the understanding of women s power to define themselves Voices in the Kitchen joins the extensive culinary research of the last decade in exploring the importance of the knowledge found in the practical concrete and temporal aspects of the ordinary practice of everyday cooking
