Literary Figures in French Drama (1784-1834) Eric H. Kadler,1969 The general aim of this book is to present a study of a dramatic genre which was a significant facet of French drama in the period from 1784 to 1834 and has never before been singled out or analyzed The striking feature of the plays of this genre is that the protagonists represent French literary figures A casual examination of a collection of late eighteenth and early nineteenth century plays many of which concern literary figures led to the initial idea for this study Conscientious cross checking was subsequently done in a number of reference works and contemporary newspapers to obtain complete coverage and to draw up a list of all the plays in which French literary figures appeared as characters From the total number of such plays 153 have been used as the primary source of information They were found scattered either in different collections or as separate copies in various libraries This source has been supplemented by use of theatrical journals and almanacs giving reviews of some of the plays which were not published EuroComRom-- the Seven Sieves William J. Klein, Tilbert Dídac Stegmann, 2002-01 Le Ménestrel, 1901 Byzantine Court Culture from 829 to 1204 Henry Maguire, 1997 The imperial court in Constantinople has been central to the outsider's vision of Byzantium However in spite of its fame in literature and scholarship there have been few attempts to analyze the Byzantine court in its entirety as a phenomenon The studies in this volume aim to provide a unified composition by presenting Byzantine courtly life in all its interconnected facets One important theme that unites these studies is the attention paid to describing the effects of a change in the social makeup of the court during this period and the reflection of these changes in art and architecture These changes in social composition mentality and material culture of the court demonstrate that as in so many other aspects of Byzantine civilization the image of permanence and immutability projected by the forms of palace life was more apparent than real As this new work shows behind the golden facade of ceremony rhetoric and art there was constant development and renewal The Churches of Paris Beale S. modern classic that promises to be remembered for generations to come The perfect way to introduce the topic of the environment to boys and girls aged 3 and over Barroux s books include Uncle John and the Giant Cherry Tree which won him the 2005 Enfantaisie Award and the extraordinary Line of Fire Diary of An Unknown Soldier which has received widespread critical acclaim In 2015 Barroux won the first Parents Babies a Book competition for his work Chuut which will be given to every newborn baby in the north of France     The Frog Prince ,2012-09-15 Angry at being forced to keep her promise to a frog the princess finally resorts to violent action with unexpected results     The Romantic Agony Mario Praz,1956
