Patterned Splendour Lesley Pullen, 2021-03-02 There exist numerous free standing figurative sculptures produced in Java between the eighth and fifteenth centuries whose dress display detailed textile patterns This surviving body of sculpture carved in stone and cast in metal varying in both size and condition remains in archaeological sites and museums in Indonesia and worldwide The equatorial climate of Java has precluded any textiles from this period surviving Therefore this book argues the textiles represented on these sculptures offer a unique insight into the patterned splendour of the textiles in circulation during this period This volume contributes to our knowledge of the textiles in circulation at that time by including the first comprehensive record of this body of sculpture together with the textile patterns classified into a typology of styles within each chapter

History, Culture, and Region in Southeast Asian Perspectives O. W. Wolters, 2018-08-06 A new edition of this classic study of mandala Southeast Asia The revised book includes a substantial retrospective postscript examining contemporary scholarship that has contributed to the understanding of Southeast Asian history since 1982

The Cambridge World History: Volume 4, A World with States, Empires and Networks 1200 BCE-900 CE Craig Benjamin, 2015-04-16 From 1200 BCE to 900 CE the world witnessed the rise of powerful new states and empires as well as networks of cross cultural exchange and conquest Considering the formation and expansion of these large scale entities this fourth volume of the Cambridge World History series outlines key economic political social cultural and intellectual developments that occurred across the globe in this period Leading scholars examine critical transformations in science and technology economic systems attitudes towards gender and family social hierarchies education art and slavery The second part of the volume focuses on broader processes of change within western and central

Eurasia the Mediterranean South Asia Africa East Asia Europe the Americas and Oceania as well as offering regional studies highlighting specific topics from trade along the Silk Roads and across the Sahara to Chaco culture in the US southwest to Confucianism and the state in East Asia A History of Modern Indonesia Adrian Vickers, 2013-03-25 Since the Bali bombings of 2002 and the rise of political Islam Indonesia has frequently occupied media headlines Nevertheless the history of the fourth largest country on earth remains relatively unknown Adrian Vickers book first published in 2005 traces the history of an island country comprising some 240 million people from the colonial period through revolution and independence to the present Framed around the life story of Pramoedya Ananta Toer Indonesia s most famous and controversial novelist and playwright the book journeys through the social and cultural mores of Indonesian society focusing on the experiences of ordinary people In this new edition the author brings the story up to date revisiting his argument as to why Indonesia has yet to realise its potential as a democratic country He also examines the rise of fundamentalist Islam which has haunted Indonesia since the fall of Suharto Esoteric Buddhism in Mediaeval Maritime Asia Andrea Acri, 2016-09-05 This volume advocates a trans regional and maritime focused approach to studying the genesis development and circulation of Esoteric or Tantric Buddhism across Maritime Asia from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries ce The book lays emphasis on the mobile networks of human agents Masters textual sources Texts and images Icons through which Esoteric Buddhist traditions spread Capitalising on recent research and making use of both disciplinary and area focused perspectives this book highlights the role played by Esoteric Buddhist maritime networks in shaping intra Asian connectivity In doing so it reveals the limits of a historiography that is premised on land based transmission of Buddhism from a South Asian homeland and advances an alternative historical narrative that overturns the popular perception regarding Southeast Asia as a periphery that passively received overseas influences Thus a strong point is made for the appreciation of the region as both a crossroads and rightful terminus of Buddhist cults and for the re evaluation of the creative and transformative force of Southeast Asian agents in the transmission of Esoteric Buddhism across mediaeval Asia Java in the 14th Century Theodore G.Th. Pigeaud, 2013-03-09 Essentially the following commentary on the contents of the N gara Kert gama has been made up from notes by former editors of the text together with remarks criticisms and digressions by the present author As Kern Krom and their contemporaries were especially interested in dynastie history and archeology their notes on those subjects are legion and as a result of their studies on many points a communis opinio has been reached The argumentations which led up to this end are not reproduced in the present edition The interested reader is referred to Krom s great books Oud Javaansche Kunst and Hindoe Javaansche Geschiedenis It is to be expected that before long the results of Krom s life work will be made accessible for English readers by De Casparis On the other hand cultural history religion economics and sociology have been rather neglected by the first editors of the N gara Kert gama The present author has done his best to remedy that omission The reader will find that the greater part of the following commentaries is concerned with those subjects The contemporaneous minor texts and the charters that are published translated and annotated in the present book in the same manner as the N gara Kert gama have been chosen almost exclusively for the valuable information on social economic and religious conditions in the 14th century Majapahit realm that is afforded by them The Cambridge World History Merry E. Wiesner-Hanks, David Christian, Graeme Barker, Benjamin Z. Kedar, Norman Yoffee, Craig Benjamin, Jerry H. Making a Canon Janice Leoshko, 2024-12-11 The story of how one scholar's experiences in Sri Lanka shaped the contours of the Buddhist visual canon An early interpreter of Buddhist art to the West Ananda Kentish Coomaraswamy laid the foundation of what would become the South Asian visual canon particularly through his efforts to understand how Buddhist art emerged and developed In Making a Canon Janice Leoshko examines how Coomaraswamy's experience as the director of a mineralogical survey in Sri Lanka shaped his understanding of South Asian art and religion Along the way she reveals how Coomaraswamy's distinctive repetition of Sri Lankan visual images in his work influenced the direction of South Asia's canon formation and left a lasting impression on our understanding of Buddhist art

The Golden Road William Dalrymple, 2025-04-29 The internationally bestselling author of The Anarchy returns with a sparkling soaring history of ideas tracing South Asia's under recognized role in producing the world as we know it For a millennium and a half India was a confident exporter of its diverse civilization creating around it a vast empire of ideas Indian art religions technology astronomy music dance literature mathematics and mythology blazed a trail across the world along a Golden Road that stretched from the Red Sea to the Pacific In The Golden Road William Dalrymple draws from a lifetime of scholarship to highlight India's oft forgotten position as the heart of ancient Eurasia For the first time he gives a name to this spread of Indian ideas that transformed the world From the largest Hindu temple in the world at Angkor Wat to the Buddhism of China from the trade that helped fund the Roman Empire to the creation of the numerals we use today including zero India transformed the culture and technology of its ancient world and our world today as we know it

Zhipan's Account of the History of Buddhism in China Thomas Jülch, 2021-02-22 The Fozu tongji by Zhipan ca 1220-1275 is a key text of Chinese Buddhist historiography The core of the work is formed by the Fayun tongsai zhi an annalistic history of Buddhism in China which extends through Fozu tongji juan 34-48 Thomas Jülch now presents a translation of the Fayun tongsai zhi in three volumes This second volume covers the annalistic display from the Sui dynasty to the end of the Wudai period Offering elaborate annotations Jülch succeeds in clarifying the backgrounds to the historiographic contents which Zhipan presents in highly essentialized style Jülch identifies the sources for the historical traditions Zhipan refers to and when accounts presented by Zhipan are inaccurate or imprecise he points out how the relevant matter is depicted in the sources Zhipan relies on Consistently employing these means in reliable style Jülch defines a new standard for translations of medieval Chinese historiographic texts

Paranormal States D. E. Osto, 2024-09-10 A number of converts to Buddhism report paranormal experiences Their accounts describe psychic abilities like clairvoyance and precognition out of body experiences near death experiences and encounters with other beings such as ghosts and deities and they often interpret these events through a specifically Buddhist lens This book is a groundbreaking exploration of these phenomena and their implications for both humanistic and scientific study of the paranormal D E Osto examines accounts of paranormal phenomena experienced by convert Buddhists from around the world collected through an online survey and interviews placing them in the context of Indian Buddhist sources and recent scientific research They focus in detail on the life stories of two interviewees and the important role the paranormal has played in their lives These contemporary first person narratives demonstrate the continued importance of the psychic and paranormal within the Buddhist tradition and they can be interpreted as a living Buddhist folklore Osto considers the limitations of both traditional religious views and Western scientific studies of the paranormal and proposes instead a new Buddhist phenomenological approach Ultimately Paranormal States contends these deeply mysterious and extraordinary experiences exceed current understandings and they can help bridge the gap between religious and scientific worldviews An Introduction to Buddhism Peter Harvey, 2013 Extensively revised and updated this book provides a comprehensive overview of the development of Buddhism in Asia and the West

Java in the 14th Century Theodore Gauthier Th. Pigeaud, 1960 The Creative South Andrea Acri, Peter Sharrock, 2022-08-29 This edited volume programmatically reconsiders the creative contribution of the littoral and insular regions of Maritime Asia to shaping new paradigms in the Buddhist and Hindu art and architecture of the mediaeval Asian world Far from being a mere southern conduit for the maritime circulation of Indic religions in the period from ca the 7th to the 14th century those regions transformed across mainland and island polities the rituals icons and architecture that embodied these religious insights with a dynamism that often eclipsed the established cultural centres in Northern India Central Asia and mainland China This collective body of work brings together new research aiming to recalibrate the importance of these innovations in art and architecture thereby highlighting the cultural creativity of the monsoon influenced Southern rim of the Asian landmass Although Maritime Asia in mediaeval times was not as densely populated as the agrarian hinterland Asia's coasts were highly urbanized The region from southern India to south China was a heterogeneous blend of cultures leavened with a strong interest in trade This cosmopolitan society afforded plentiful opportunities for artists to find patrons and develop individual styles and aesthetic sensibilities In the bustling ports of Asia's south coast rulers sought to embellish their prestige and attract foreign merchants by sponsoring the development of monumental complexes and centres of learning and debate These educational institutions attracted teachers from all over Asia and in their cloisters they developed new intellectual frameworks which were reflected in works of art and architecture Scholars moved frequently by sea influencing and being influenced by other foreigners such as Japanese and central Asians who were also attracted to these places This very variety has hindered scholarly research in the past This volume contributes to the endeavour to show how Maritime Asia was not an incoherent jumble of misunderstood influences from better known civilizations there was a pattern to this creativity which the authors in this collection clarify for us The maritime world of Asia may have lain on the margins of the land but it provided a physical and intellectual medium through which artistic ideas from east and west flowed freely Maritime Asia also made significant original contributions which hold their own with those of the hinterland of the Asian continent Unconstrained by the burden of static hierarchical courts the peoples of Maritime Asia built on the inspiration provided by a hybrid society to demonstrate a high degree of artistic originality while testing but not breaking the link with conventional iconography Professor John Miksic Department of Southeast Asian Studies Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences National University of Singapore NUS The collective objective of this two volume work is to give substance to the oft cited mantra that mediaeval maritime Southeast Asia was as much an innovative contributor to as a recipient in the cultural conversations that took place across the Bay of Bengal and South China Sea In bracketing these studies between the 7th and 14th centuries the editors have drawn into focus two key traditions that are explicated in texts ritual art and architecture and religious landscapes of this period tantric Buddhism and esoteric Shaivism A great strength of these studies is this focus for which the editors are to be commended The chapters contain much that represents significant milestones in building new understanding in the field including overdue recognition of the importance of Southeast Asian esoteric Buddhist practice in shaping Chinese Buddhism Nowhere did the architects of the religious landscape of early Southeast Asia think of themselves as being on the periphery or as outsiders looking in Rather they knowingly imbued their tirthas and sacred centres with the same authority as those in India and created religious edifices that were on occasions beyond India s experience I highly commend this publication to anyone with an interest in bringing a wider lens to the study of Indian esoteric religious practices and to understanding the relationship of early Hindu Buddhist Southeast Asia to the wider Asian world John Guy Senior Curator of South and Southeast Asian Art The Metropolitan Museum of Art New York The Creative South is a rich compendium of scholarship concerning the religious art of Southeast Asia and its ties to India in the period beginning in the 8th century It was a time when merchants were crisscrossing the seas from India to China and when advocates of innovative doctrines and rituals were finding ready support among the rulers of the varied kingdoms From the identification of images embraced by the seafarers to the mysteries of the fire shrines in Cambodian temples from the funerary beliefs of Odisha to the unique character of the Javanese Ramayana these eighteen studies provide fresh understandings of the patterns of reception and innovation Hiram Woodward Mr and Mrs Thomas Quincy Scott Curator of Asian Art Emeritus The Walters Art Museum
