Pilgrimage Of Love Moltmann On The Trinity And Christian Life:

Pilgrimage of Love Joy Ann McDougall, 2005-10-13 This book engages one of the liveliest theological debates at the turn of the twenty first century the significance of the doctrine of the Trinity to the Christian concept of God and to its life of faith

Pilgrimage of Love Joy Ann McDougall, 2005-10-13 In Pilgrimage of Love Joy Ann McDougall offers an original reading and critical analysis of German Protestant theologian Jürgen Moltmann's social trinitarian theology. She identifies the driving theological impulses, methodological convictions and practical concerns that shape the author's evolving trinitarian vision. She uncovers the narrative of divine love in Moltmann's early trilogy and shows how its conceptual trajectory shifts and deepens in his six volume Systematic Contributions to Theology. Building on her analysis, McDougall advances a compelling case for the concept of trinitarian fellowship as the structuring theological principle in Moltmann's later work. She demonstrates how this concept of divine love unifies the author's theological anthropology, theology of grace and the practices of the life of faith. Finally, she shows how this social trinitarian analogy of fellowship serves as an elastic rule of faith in the personal, political and ecclesial realms of human existence. While McDougall highlights the prophetic potential of Moltmann's trinitarian theology for Christian praxis, she also challenges the author's underdeveloped doctrine of sin and theory of theological language. Pilgrimage of Love offers one of the first comprehensive interpretations of Moltmann's mature trinitarian theology. It introduces, systematizes and clarifies the thought of one of the most significant Protestant theologians at the turn of the twenty first century. This study will be an invaluable resource on Moltmann's thought for scholars of modern Protestant theology and for all those interested in the current renaissance of trinitarian theology. For Life Abundant Dorothy C. Bass, Craig Dykstra, 2008-04-29 Bass and Dykstra have written extensively and collaboratively on Christian Practices, arguing that the what Christians have done faithfully over time constitutes a life-giving way of life and that this living of Christianity is more primary to what it means to be Christian than doctrinal confession. That our confessions spring from faithful living rather than the other way around. This book contains numerous essays that take up the question of Christian Practices and ministry: the preparation of ministers, theological education, etc. in a post-Enlightenment understanding of the relationship of practice and head knowledge. Because the book is the result of a community conversation, it doesn't have a clear thesis, but it models its conviction that reflection on theology arises from community conversation around our life in discipleship together. An extremely helpful beginning to a conversation about ministry practices of faith, clergy preparation, etc. as the time has come to integrate the kind of learning that comes in the classroom with the kind that only comes from living the faith with others. Amazon.com Trinitarian Theology and Power Relations M. Minister, 2014-11-06 This text crafts a trinitarian theology that reorients theology from presumptions about the immateriality of the Trinity toward the places where the Trinity matters: material bodies in historical contexts and the intersecting ways political and theological power structures normalize and marginalize bodies on the basis of material difference.

Comparing Faithfully Michelle Voss, 2016-09-01 Every generation of theologians must respond to its context by rearticulating the central tenets of the faith. Interreligious comparison has been integral to this process from the start of the Christian tradition and is especially salient today. The emerging field of comparative theology, in which close study of another religious tradition yields new questions and categories for theological reflection in the scholar's home tradition, embodies the ecumenical spirit of this moment. This discipline has the potential to enrich systematic theology and, by extension, theological education at its foundations. The essays in Comparing Faithfully demonstrate that engagement with religious diversity need not be an afterthought in the study of Christian systematic theology; rather, it can be a way into systematic theological thinking. Each section invites students to test theological categories to consider Christian doctrine in relation to specific comparisons and to take up comparative study in their own contexts. This resource for pastors and theology students reconsiders five central doctrines of the Christian faith in light of focused interreligious investigations. The dialogical format of the book builds conversation about the doctrine of God, theodicy, humanity, Christology, and soteriology. Its comparative essays span examples from Hindu, Buddhist, Jewish, Muslim, Jain, and Confucian traditions, as well as indigenous Aztec theology and contemporary spiritual but not religious thought, to offer exciting new perspectives on Christian doctrine. Jürgen Moltmann and Evangelical Theology Sung Wook Chung, 2012-04-23 Jürgen Moltmann is now regarded as one of the most influential theologians since Karl Barth. However, evangelical engagement with Moltmann has been hesitant and deficient. This book fills the gap. Ten respected evangelical theologians engage with Moltmann's theology in a mature, dynamic, and critical manner, seeking to appropriate from it in a discerning manner. The contributors include Sung Wook Chung, Kurt Anders, Richardson Veli, Matti Karkainen, Stephen N. Williams, and Timothy Bradshaw. This book is an excellent demonstration of intellectual confidence and respectability of robust evangelical theology. Jürgen Moltmann's Ethics of Hope Timothy Harvie, 2016-05-06 This book develops a thorough account of the sphere of human moral action in sustained dialogue with Jürgen Moltmann. By examining God's role as promise-giver, particularly in the Christian understanding of resurrection, this work describes the occupancy of both history and space in moral terms. This leads to an understanding of Jesus' description of the kingdom of God, to feature prominently in describing both the possibility and content of human moral action. By offering an account of each of the main doctrines found in Moltmann's corpus—the role of the future, the Trinity, the Holy Spirit, and anthropology—this book locates how each contributes to the understanding of ethics from a Christian perspective and subsequently applies these findings to the contemporary issue of poverty and global economics. Human Experience and the Triune God Bernhard Nausner, 2008 The overarching aim of this work is to develop a new account of the doctrine of the Trinity. The author proposes that such an approach is overdue because contemporary trinitarian theology pays insufficient attention to the fact that theology as linguistic discourse is inescapably embedded in human experience. Hence, the critical analysis of existing trinitarian constructions. Gunton LaCugna. Moltmann is impressively sharp. In response, Nausner develops an interstitial methodology working between experience and revelation refusing both revelational and experiential positivisms In dialogue with contemporary novels the human sciences Frankl Weizsäcker philosophy Levinas and biblical narratives he offers an imaginative original and contemporary way of conceiving the doctrine of the Trinity in relation to human life The Transformative Church Patrick Oden,2015-02-01 Throughout the course of his theological career Jürgen Moltmann has been interested in the ecclesial and societal consequences of systematic theology and what each doctrine means for our life in this world The Transformative Church explores these concerns in Moltmann's major texts and highlighting themes relevant for a transformative ecclesiology Patrick Oden constructs a substantive transformative ecclesiology embedded in this world we are to become in the church who we are to be in this world whole in Christ so as to be a messianic people in any context

German Idealism's Trinitarian Legacy Dale M. Schlitt,2016-10-20 Dale M Schlitt presents a study of trinitarian thought as it was understood and debated by the German Idealists broadly engaging Schelling's philosophical interpretations of Trinity as well as Hegel's and analyzing how these Idealist interpretations influenced later philosophers and theologians Divided into different sections one considers nineteenth century central Europeans Philipp Marheineke Isaak August Dorner and Vladimir Sergeyevich Solovyov under the rubric testimonials Another section studies twentieth century Germans Karl Barth Karl Rahner and Wolfhart Pannenberg who share family resemblances with the Idealists and a third addresses the work of twentieth and twenty first century Americans Robert W Jenson Catherine Mowry LaCugna Joseph A Bracken and Schlitt himself whose work reverberates with what Schlitt terms transatlantic Idealist echoes The book concludes with reflection on the overall German Idealist trinitarian legacy noting several challenges it offers to those who will pursue creative trinitarian reflection in the future

Incarnational Realism Travis E. Ables,2013-07-18 In the last half of the 20th century a consensus emerged that Christian theology in the Western tradition had failed to produce a viable doctrine of the Holy Spirit and that Augustine's trinitarian theology bore the blame for much of that failure This book offers a fresh rereading of Western trinitarian theology to better understand the logic of its pneumatology Ables studies the pneumatologies of Augustine and Karl Barth and argues that the vision of the doctrine of the Spirit in these theologians should be understood as a way of talking about participating in the mystery of God as a performance of the life of Christ He claims that for both theologians trinitarian doctrine encapsulates the grammar of the divine self giving in history The function of pneumatology in particular is to articulate the human reception and enactment of God's self giving as itself part of the act of God this self involving logic is the special grammar of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit

An Imaginative Glimpse Joas Adiprasetya,2013-08-21 In contrast to the popular notion that the doctrine of the Trinity hinders Christians from engaging with the reality of religious diversity this book argues that the doctrine is the best way of constructing contemporary theology of religions An Imaginative Glimpse reexamines three prominent Trinitarian theologians of religions Raimundo Panikkar Gavin D Costa and S Mark Heim and proposes a fresh and creative model by bringing the classical idea of perichoresis to its present day multifaith situation Opening a new alternative in both Trinitarian theology and theology of religions Adiprasetya s approach adds a distinctive contribution to the ongoing and challenging discussion in both fields By using perichoresis imaginatively as a multidimensional category for multiple religious participations within the Trinity Adiprasetya argues that the model is able to respect all religions on their own terms while at the same time being faithful to the Christian standpoint

The Place of the Spirit Sarah Morice-Brubaker, 2014-08-28 Is there any way to talk theologically about the Trinity and place What might the placedness of creation have to do with God s triunity In The Place of the Spirit Sarah Morice Brubaker considers how anxieties about place have influenced Trinitarian theology both what it is asked to do and the language in which it is expressed When one is nervous about collapsing God into created horizons she suggests one is apt to come up with a model of Trinity that refuses place Distance becomes a primary way of situating the divine persons in relations to each other Conversely theologians who wish to avoid a too remote God likewise recruit Trinitarian language to suit that purpose They too use language that encourages the importance of place expressing triunity in terms of coinherence and mutual indwelling And yet suggests Morice Brubaker the question has received full on attention in other areas of ethics philosophy and systematic theology The Place of the Spirit calls for Trinitarian thought to avail itself of those insights and offers some ways in which it may do so

Jubilee in the Bible Lidija Gunjević, 2017-10-02 The biblical message of Jubilee is becoming more credible in our days in dealing with the socio economic and moral spiritual issues of today s world It continues to exercise a powerful influence on the religious thoughts and actions of God s people In addition to that this book reveals a new hermeneutical code of reading and interpreting the message of Jubilee The synthesis of the exegetical analysis of the biblical texts regarding the Jubilee and Sabbath Sabbath year and Moltmann s understanding of this subject reveals the meaning and significance of the topic how it is recognized as well as its implications in today s world This synthesis reveals a new vision and starting point for socio economic and moral spiritual reform in our time The biblical Sabbath Jubilee traditions are much richer than we thought This book shows it Theologically often neglected they are a source of new ideas to solve problems of human community and the ecology of the earth That my theological works can be used to apply them today is a surprise to me a happy surprise Jürgen Moltmann

The Annihilation of Hell Nicholas Ansell, 2014-07-08 This work analyses and evaluates Jürgen Moltmann s model of universal salvation and its relation to his understanding of the redemption or eschatological fulfilment of time For Jürgen Moltmann Hell is the nemesis of Hope The Annihilation of Hell thus refers both to Hell s annihilative power in history and to the overcoming of that power as envisioned by Moltmann s distinctive theology of the cross in which God becomes all in all through Christ s descent into Godforsakenness The negation of Hell and the fulfilment of history are inseparable Attentive to the overall contours and dynamics of Moltmann s thinking especially his zimzum doctrine of creation his eschatologically oriented philosophy of time and his expanded understanding of the nature grace relationship this study asks whether the universal salvation that he proposes can honour human freedom promise vindication for those who suffer and do justice to biblical revelation As well as providing an in depth exposition of Moltmann s ideas The Annihilation of Hell also explores how a covenantal universalism might revitalise our web of beliefs in a way that is attuned to the authorising of Scripture and the spirituality of existence If divine and human freedom are to be reconciled as Moltmann believes the confrontation between Hell and hope will entail rethinking issues that are not only at the centre of theology but at the heart of life itself

Quest for Spiritual Community Angela H. Reed,2011-04-25 Many churches recognize the importance of the genuine spiritual hunger in our time and are attempting to bridge the gulf between traditional religious institutions and the contemporary spiritual quest by revitalizing and retooling ancient spiritual practices This book suggests that it is possible to relish the spiritual quest while honoring tradition and theological inquiry through practices such as spiritual guidance It presents a sociological analysis of contemporary spirituality case studies of congregations with spiritual guidance ministries and reflection on historical practices and Protestant theological roots to explore the strengths and pitfalls of nurturing the contemporary spiritual quest in the average congregation The resulting vision for congregation based spiritual guidance incorporates practices that attend to person community and mission

Atonement and Comparative Theology Catherine Cornille,2021-09-07 The central Christian belief in salvation through the suffering death and resurrection of Jesus Christ remains one of the most intractable mysteries of Christian faith Throughout history it has given rise to various theories of atonement many of which have been subject to critique as they no longer speak to contemporary notions of evil and sin or to current conceptions of justice One of the important challenges for contemporary Christian theology thus involves exploring new ways of understanding the salvific meaning of the cross In Atonement and Comparative Theology Christian theologians with expertise in Judaism Islam Hinduism Buddhism Daoism and African Religions reflect on how engagement with these traditions sheds new light on the Christian understanding of atonement by pointing to analogous structures of sin and salvation drawing attention to the scandal of the cross as seen by the religious other and re interpreting aspects of the Christian understanding of atonement Together they illustrate the possibilities for comparative theology to deepen and enrich Christian theological reflection

Toward a Better

Worldliness Terra Schwerin Rowe,2017-04-01 Five hundred years ago the Protestant Reformation inspired profound theological ecclesial economic and social transformations But what impact does the Protestant tradition have today And what might it have This volume addresses such questions focusing on the economic and ecological implications of the Protestant doctrine of grace In the late twentieth century a number of Protestant scholars countered Max Weber s famous work on Protestantism and capitalism by arguing that Calvin and Luther were prophetic critics of early capitalist practices While acknowledging the importance of this scholarship Terra Rowe argues that a more nuanced approach is necessary This narrative tends to purify Protestantism of capitalist beginnings and does not account for compelling arguments articulated by proponents of Radical Orthodoxy tying Protestantism and Protestant grace in particular to capitalism These debates now

emerge with increasing urgency in the face of growing economic injustice and overwhelming evidence of an ecologically unsustainable economic system demonstrated most potently by climate change In the spirit of ecotheologies resonating with the best of the Reformation tradition this book develops a fresh reading of Luther s theology of grace and his economic ethics in conversation with current reflections on concepts of the gift and gifting practices
