Violet the Pilot Steve Breen,2008-03-13 By the time she s two years old Violet Van Winkle can fix nearly any appliance in the house And by eight she s building an elaborate flying machines from scratch mind boggling contraptions such as the Tubbubler the Bicycopter and the Wing a ma jig The kids at school tease her but they have no idea what she s capable of Maybe she could earn their respect by winning the blue ribbon in the upcoming Air Show Or maybe something even better will happen something involving her bestever invention a Boy Scout troop in peril and even the mayor himself A classic underdog story full of humor and sweetness and retro pizzazz Violet the Pilot is both endearing and adorable It ll fly right into your heart      Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary,1968      Encyclopedia of Television Subjects, Themes and Settings Vincent Terrace,2024-10-17 Over the course of 80 years television has produced countless programs many of which fit a particular profile Did you know for example some programs are devoted to ghosts genies angels and even mermaids Color broadcasting was first tested in 1941 Live models were used to advertise lingerie as early as 1950 Or that nudity although accidental occurred on TV long before cable was even thought possible These are just a few of the many facts and firsts that can be found within the 145 entries included Appropriate for fans and scholars and bursting with obscure facts this work traces the evolution of specific topics from 1925 through the 2005 2006 season Entries include such diverse themes as adolescence adult film actresses on TV bars espionage gays immigrants lawyers transsexuals and truckers as well as locations like Canada Hawaii New York and Los Angeles Each entry is arranged as a timeline clearly displaying how television s treatment of the subject has changed through the years Each entry is as complete as possible and contains series pilot special and experimental program information Whether just a fan of television and eager to know more about the medium or a scholar seeking hard to find facts and information this book traces the history of specific topics from television s infancy to its changes in the early twenty first century      Aristotle's Induction and the Inference of First Principles David Botting,2024-10-15 Aristotle s Induction and the Inference of First Principles observes that Aristotle s reputation as an empiricist has come under threat In the Posterior Analytics Aristotle puts forward a foundationalist theory of scientific knowledge that problematizes knowing the science s first principles empirically Aristotle states that we know the principles through induction but also that induction is inadequate for knowing essences In response to this tension rationalists claim that Aristotle equivocates between two conceptions of induction enumerative and intuitive intuitive induction being that which grasps the principles and provides direct knowledge of essences enumerative induction being that which is said to be inadequate Empiricists preserve an empiricist road to first principles by downplaying enumerative induction s role In order to preserve Aristotle's avowals that it is by induction that we know the principles while avoiding the rationalist alternative David Botting provides an inferentialist account of induction showing how the content of a first principle is inferentially known but not its necessity which must be proved by constructing the first principle from simpler elements A world governed by natural necessities and not just brute regularities is knowable through the senses and without resorting to super empirical acts or faculties of intuition
