The Portraits of Bartolomeo Veneto Laura Pagnotta,2003 This is the first English language monograph on Bartolomeo Veneto c 14801531 who worked in Northern Italy in an area bounded by Venice and Milan The art made in this region is characterized by an intensity and richness arising from the various artistic personalities that enlivened the period and the vitality of exchanges that linked artists from widely separated cultural areas An analysis of Bartolomeo s works allows one to observe the vivid atmosphere of the period Specializing in portraiture he moved often to satisfy the demands of his clientele in the small and large courts in the Veneto Emilia and the Lombardy regions of the Po Valley Over the course of his career from his earliest dated painting in 1502 until his death presumably in 1531 he produced a remarkable body of work Characteristic of Bartolomeo Veneto is an interest in a refined rendering of details particularly of clothing and the inclusion of symbolic elements This symbolism understandable by only a select few refers to the moral philosophical or even political ideals of the person depicted and reflects the cultivated society of the clients for whom the artist worked Of particular interest are his portraits and works that fall midway between conventional portraiture and representations of a symbolic mythological or religious nature On the one hand he was able to synthesize diverse stylistic tendencies On the other he was able to capture nuances of his subjects personalities Despite the remarkable quality of many of his paintings he was not mentioned by historical sources and he remains one of the least studied and most mysterious of the 16 century Italian painters He was rediscovered in the middle of the 19th century when several of his signed and dated paintings were acquired by European museums The Renaissance Portrait Patricia Lee Rubin,2011 Published in conjunction with an exhibition held at the Bode Museum Berlin Aug 25 Nov 20 2011 and at the Metropolitan Museum of Art New York Dec 21 2011 Mar 18 2012
