The Aegean and the Orient in the Second Millennium B. C. Helene J. Kantor, 1947 Studies in Islamic History and Institutions Goitein, 2023-09-25 Under the Mediterranean Honor Frost, 1963 Honor Frost has written a travel book with this difference her journeys have extended below the surface of the sea Her accounts of these regions can be compared with the writings of early travellers who unhampered by overspecialization recorded a variety of observations on completely unknown places In setting down her direct experience she has thrown new light on the much discussed subject of underwater archaeology This book contains 22 colour and 28 monochrome photographs by well known divers also 52 plans and drawings by the author illustrating her arguments It is addressed to travellers Letters of Medieval Jewish Traders S. D. Goitein, 2015-03-08 Modern international business has its origins in the overseas trade of the Middle Ages Of the various communities active in trade in the Islamic countries at that time records of only the Jewish community survive Thousands of documents were preserved in the Cairo Geniza a lumber room attached to the synagogue where discarded writings containing the name of God were deposited to preserve them from desecration From them Professor Goitein has selected eighty letters that provide a fascinating glimpse into the world of the medieval Jewish traders As the letters vividly illustrate international trade depended on a network of personal relationships and mutual confidence Organization was largely through partnerships based usually on ties of common religion but often reinforced by family connections Sometimes the partners of Jews were Christians or Muslims and the letters show these merchants working together in greater harmony than has been thought even in partnerships that lasted through generations The services rendered to a friend or partner and those expected from him were great and the book opens with an angry letter from a merchant who believed he had been let down by his friend The life of a trader was full of dangers as the letter describing a shipwreck illustrates and put great strain on personal relationships One of the most moving letters is that written to his wife by a man absent in India for many years while endeavoring to make the family's fortunes Although never ceasing to love her and longing to be with her he offers to divorce her if she feels she can wait for him no longer A decisive event in the life of the great Jewish philosopher Moses Maimonides

was the death of his brother David who drowned in the Indian Ocean Printed here is the last letter David wrote describing his safe crossing of the desert and announcing his intention to go on to India against his brother s instructions Professor Goitein has provided an introduction and notes for each letter and a general introduction describing the social and spiritual world of the writers the organization of overseas trade in the Middle Ages and the goods traded The letters demonstrate that although it reached from Spain to India the traders world was a cohesive one through which these men could move freely and always feel at home Originally published in 1974 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Williams,2008-01-21 This book is written in the belief that a proper understanding of Greek civilization in antiquity requires some knowledge of its background of seafaring A knowledge of nautical practice is required for an understanding of some passages of Greek poetry and prose writing and for a correct interpretation of numerous historical events This is an attempt at a thorough study of the evidence both literary and archaeological Modern reference books tend to repeat the misconceptions of nineteenth century scholars In contrast Mr Morrison and Mr Williams have written a scholarly and scientific study of the subject They collect in this volume evidence for Greek oared ships between 900 and 322 BC The book is primarily a catalogue of decorated pottery and quotations from literature and from naval inventories The pottery is illustrated by diagrams and plates and the quotations are given in full Greek and Roman Animal Sacrifice Christopher A. Faraone, F. S. Naiden, 2018-04-26 The interpretation of animal sacrifice now considered the most important ancient Greek and Roman religious ritual has long been dominated by the views of Walter Burkert the late J P Vernant and Marcel Detienne No penetrating and general critique of their views has appeared and in particular no critique of the application of these views to Roman religion Nor has any critique dealt with the use of literary and visual sources by these writers This book a collection of essays by leading scholars incorporates all these subjects and provides a theoretical background for the study of animal sacrifice in an ancient context Immanuel Kant, 1724-1924 Emil Carl Wilm, George Herbert Palmer, 1925 Reports of the Committee on Electrical Standards , A Study of Kant James Ward, 1922 The Romance of the Apothecaries' Garden at Chelsea Frederic Dawtrey Drewitt, 1922 Jewish Studies in Memory of Israel Abrahams Jewish Institute of Religion (New York, N.Y.), Alexander Kohut Memorial Foundation, 1927 A Century of Roundels Algernon Charles Swinburne, 1883 K'ang Hsi Eloise Talcott Hibbert, 1940
