Reflections on Leadership and Career Development Manfred F. R. Kets de Vries, 2010-01-11 Views from the interface of psychoanalysis and organizational life In the books in this series Manfred Kets de Vries failed engineer entrepreneur manqué reluctant economist international management guru psychoanalyst wit and outdoorsman offers an overview of his work spanning four decades a period in which he has established himself as the leading figure in the clinical study of organizational leadership At a key point in his career working as he puts it in the twilight zone of economics management and psychoanalysis he decided to strike out on a little trodden path and bring the person back into the organization Now Kets de Vries occupies a unique position in the academic business world putting leaders and companies of the couch and working at the often intimate interface where the inner theater of the individual meets the outer world of the organization The second book in this series Reflections on Leadership and Career Development takes different perspectives on the intimate connection between the personality or inner theater of individuals and the organizational context in which they work how different personality types in positions of leadership or as members of management teams affect the functioning and success of organizations Kets de Vries looks at the way basic psychological processes operate on individual and corporate performance and analyzes them in the context of case studies of leaders and organizations He examines narcissism dysfunctional collusion between leaders and followers some new leadership archetypes and the roles that organizational therapists coaches or consultants can play in their interventions The book includes a lengthy study of Vladimir Putin as CEO of Russia Inc an assessment of the former Russian president's performance as an organizational leader The final part of the book examines the career life cycle and how executives cope or fail to cope with rites de passage like succession and retirement For the first time this book provides a glimpse of Manfred Kets de Vries' own inner theater as the wellspring of his success as psychoanalyst mentor and inspiration to a generation of leaders Reflections on Leadership and Career Development offers a rare opportunity to observe Manfred on his own legendary couch a personal perspective not to be missed Paul McMorran HR Director TNK BP Folklife Annual, 1985 Roots of Empire John T. Nathanson,1994 This is a revolutionary book about the nature of emotion about the way emotions are triggered in our private moments in our relations with others and by our biology Drawing on every theme of the modern life sciences Dr Nathanson shows how the nine basic affects interest excitement enjoyment joy surprise startle fear terror distress anguish anger rage dissmell disgust and shame humiliation not only determine how we feel but shape our very sense of self For too long there has been a battle between those who explain emotional discomfort on the basis of lived experience and those who blame chemistry As Dr Nathanson shows chemicals and illnesses can affect our mood just as surely as an uncomfortable memory or a stern rebuke He presents a completely new understanding of all emotion providing the first link between the exciting affect theory of Silvan Tomkins and the entire world of biology medicine psychology psychotherapy religion and the social sciences Shame is the least understood of the painful emotions although it affects every phase of life We have all been made to feel foolish just at the moment we most wanted to appear wonderful we have all been rebuffed by those we wished to court Not one of us looks exactly as we might wish Shame haunts our every dream of love and influences how we experience ourselves as sexual beings We react to shame by withdrawing by making painful alliances with those who humiliate us by calling attention to what brings us pride or by attacking whoever has made us feel inferior The comedian as Nathanson shows in his discussion of Buddy Hackett makes us laugh at what we try to keep hidden transforming shame into acceptance and even pride This book explains everything that can possibly make us proud or ashamed All are in this book nobody who reads it will be quite the same again The Management of Conflict Marc Howard Ross,1993-01-01 This text offers a cross cultural approach to conflict management It identifies key features of constructive conflict management societies and evaluates three strategies of conflict management showing how each succeeds or fails for example the hostility in Northern Ireland Civic Agriculture Thomas A. Keith,1997-09-04 Attempts to theorize contemporary globalization rarely stray beyond variations on old themes of superordination versus subordination Yet there are many new definers of our present global reality depletion of strategic resources degradation of our environment counter offensives against modern patterns of thought and action which suggest that a new framework of global relations is needed Nelson Keith challenges the presumptions upon which Western notions of the world have rested and sounds a call to forge a world order more sensitive to

Healing God's Earth S. Roy Kaufman, 2013-08-02 Rural communities and traditional cultures throughout North America and around the world are being systematically dismantled by the forces of urban civilization It is no new phenomenon For over four millennia the powers of urban civilization have been playing God oppressing people and exploiting the earth This long history has brought us to the brink of disaster in the current economic ecological and energy crises confronting the dominant global culture This book reads the Bible through the lenses of rural communities The Bible has something to say about the origin and character of urban civilization and the dynamic of its relationship to rural communities Both Israel in the Old Testament and Jesus in the New Testament were engaged in the formation of rural communities of faith living as alternatives to the dominant cultures of the urban civilizations in which they lived It turns out that local face to face communities both rural and urban along with traditional cultures of all stripes are God s chosen instruments for the subversive nonviolent disarming of urban civilization and the healing of God s earth Atomic Bomb Cinema Jerome F. Shapiro, 2013-05-13 Unfathomably merciless and powerful the atomic bomb has left its indelible mark on film In Atomic Bomb Cinema Jerome F Shapiro unearths the unspoken legacy of the bombing of Nagasaki and Hiroshima and its complex aftermath in American and Japanese cinema According to Shapiro a Bomb film is never simply an exercise in ideology or paranoia He examines hundreds of films like Godzilla Dr Strangelove and The Terminator as a body of work held together by ancient narrative and symbolic traditions that extol survival under devastating conditions Drawing extensively on both English language and Japanese language sources Shapiro argues that such films not only grapple with our nuclear anxieties but also offer signs of hope that humanity is capable of repairing a damaged and divided world www atomicbombcinema com
